WORLD BISHOP COUNCIL FEDERATION

ECCLESIAL COMMUNION

WBCF WORLDWIDE™

A Synodal & Ecclesiastical Communion under the auspicious Patriarchal Authority of the WORLD BISHOP COUNCIL FEDERATION @ WBCF WORLDWIDE

WHAT IS AN ECCLESIA COMMUNION?

An ECCLESIAL COMMUNION is a spiritual and structural bond of unity that connects Christian believer to God and to one another within the Church.

Core meaning

- Ecclesial comes from *ecclesia,*the Greek word for “church” or “assembly”
- Communion comes from Koinonia,meaning fellowship,sharing or participation.
- Together,Ecclesial Communion describe the deep spiritual oneness shared by members of the Christian Church,rooted in a shared faith,Baptism,and the Eucharist (Holy Communion)

WBCF ECCLESIAL COMMUNION is a global family of independent Christian churches in full communion with the WORLD BISHOP COUNCIL FEDERATION @WBCF WORLDWIDE. ECCLESIAL COMMUNION of WBCF is one of the fastest growing Christian communion in the world today.

Structure and Leadership

- Autonomous Churches: The Ecclesial Communions are consist of distinct regional and national member churches from different Denomination,Bishopric Synod,Christian based organization
- Independence: Each member church governs its own internal affairs and makes its own laws.
- Patriarch Primate Worldwide: The Patriarch Primate worldwide serves as the spiritual head and a central focus of unity, though he hold no formal legal authority over provinces

Core Beliefs

- The Bible: Scripture is viewed as the primary rule of faith, alongside church tradition and human reason.

- The Creeds: Members accept the Nicene Creed and Apostles' Creed as core statements of Christian belief.

- The Sacraments: Baptism and the Holy Eucharist (Holy Communion) are recognized as the two essential sacraments ordained by Christ.

- Worship: Services are traditionally rooted in the Apostolic and Prophetic structured around the early Christians Way as mentioned in the Book of Acts(Acts Apostles)
